I'm happy! After all, there are no classes!

My family is reunited.

Day to exercise mind and body.

I started reading a book and did physical exercise with my sisters.

I started to think about the seriousness of this virus worldwide. How such a tiny and invisible being can take over the world. This demonstrates that man, who thinks that he dominates the Earth, can be brought down with a simple virus. It should be borne in mind that since life on Earth, 99.9% of the species have already become extinct.

The coronavirus has become a reality in Madeira and not something distant and almost impossible to reach us.

Nostalgia, wanting to go back to the perfect times a few years ago.

I relived unforgettable moments through old photo albums.

Very hot day!

Feeling of joy, it reminded me of a summer vacation day in which we spent all day relaxing and enjoying the sun's light and warmth.

Spring!

I felt like painting, painting what came to mind.

I took a car ride at sunset.

How can we value a simple car trip so much!

Change of weather- rainy day and wind!

I dreamed of going back in time, to when this virus did not even dream of harming the peoples of the Earth.

03/23/2020

Dark and depressing day.

I wanted to leave home so much! I'm tired of being days and days in a row in social isolation. I wanted to stroll and see new places, but at this stage this is not the right thing, not only for me, but for all of us!

03/24/2020

I started to think that despite all these struggles and rivalries between countries, we are all in this battle together! All together trying to fight this tiny being.

We should always think about positive things in the middle of a tide of negative things. We must be realistic and realize that there are people in far worse situations than the ones we are going through at the moment, people mourning the death of family members or even hospitalized, without knowing if death is approaching. This is even a way to spend more time with the family and do the things we are putting off due to lack of time.

The virus starts to spread in Madeira!

I am afraid this will affect my grandparents and all the elderly.

The sunset, with its warm colors, warmed my soul, in a long maternal embrace.Constança-8º2
